

Breaching the Walls. We do need education! PROJECT IN THE TIME OF SETTING NEW BARRIERS AND WALLS

September 25, 2020
14:30–17:45

Webinar organized by the Institute of Contemporary History, Czech Academy of Sciences

After several months of work, the teams will present the project outputs (collection of interviews), including various methodology issues and pitfalls they have faced up during the project course in the “Covid-19 time.”

Besides, the various meanings of the concept of the wall/walls will be discussed – to reflect the main project topic, the fall of the Berlin Wall as the symbol of the re-appropriation of individual rights and freedoms by the former Soviet bloc citizens who were struggling to get more democracy in their own countries. The speakers will put the topic in wider frames of European history.
